“LIFE AT THE END OF THE TUNNEL” CONCERT BENEFITING
BREAST CANCER FOUNDATION (TDRBCF)

The Denise Roberts Breast Cancer Foundation's Seventh Annual Founders Day Celebration

LOS ANGELES, CA (April 21, 2006) - THE DENISE ROBERTS BREAST CANCER FOUNDATION (TDRBCF) celebrates their 7th Annual Founder's Day, “Life At The End Of The Tunnel” at The House of Blues, Sunset Strip on Sunday, April 30, 2006.

The House of Blues will host a pre-reception for premiere ticket holders from 11:00am to 1:00pm, including an exquisite silent auction, hors d'oeuvres and beverages. Shortly after, the music hall will open for the soulful Cajun brunch and inspirational performances from James Ingram, featuring the famed MC, Sylvia St. James from 1:00pm to 3:00pm. TDRBCF is proud to announce Berry Gordy as the second recipient of the Syreeta Wright-Muhammad Pioneer for the Cure Award.

“We are dedicated to the research, treatment and cure of breast cancer... This event allows us to serve the underserved communities and to ensure that they receive proper breast health education and care” said Denise Roberts, Founder and Survivor.

The sole purpose of Founder's Day is to raise money to support TDRBCF's Breast Health Educational Programs: STYLING FOR LIFE, MAMMOGRAMS CAN SAVE LIVES, LIVING TREE TELE-SUPPORT, and LIFE SAVERS OUTREACH PROGRAM, which serve thousands of women and men annually!
